The 2013 Housing Inventory is a compilation of emergency, transitional, and permanent housing, along with short-term acute residential, residential recovery and residential treatment housing. It is organized by type of housing, region, and target population. For Health and Human Services Agency Regions and zipcodes, please visit and search “HHSA Regions” at: http://www.sdcounty.ca.gov/hhsa.

The Housing Inventory is a list of housing that is made available to persons with mental illness. Some of the housing is dedicated to persons with mental illness but much of the housing is available, but not dedicated, to individuals with mental illness.

Please note that this list is not meant to be comprehensive but is meant to provide mental health service providers with a list of some housing options that may be available to their clients.

For emergency shelter beds and availability, please contact 211 San Diego by dialing 2-1-1, (800) 227-0997, (858) 300-1211, or online at www.211sandiego.org.
